

About CFSGE

Child and Family Services of Grand Erie (CFSGE) is legally mandated to ensure the safety and protection of children and youth in Brantford, Brant, Haldimand, Norfolk, and the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation.

We focus on keeping children safe by supporting families and helping them stay together. Families may contact us directly or be referred during times of crisis. When needed, children may stay temporarily with another caregiver, with the goal of returning home.

Who Are Volunteers:

- ✓ Volunteers are compassionate individuals who generously share their time, talents, and unique skills to support the children, youth, and families we serve.
- ✓ Our volunteers reflect every part of the community
- ✓ They support children, youth, and parents across many programs, proving every day that Volunteers Are People Like You!

Volunteering with CFSGE

Volunteering with Child and Family Services of Grand Erie offers the meaningful reward of supporting children, youth, and families while building connections with staff, caregivers, other volunteers, and the people we serve.

As a volunteer, you'll experience the satisfaction of knowing you've made a real difference in a young person's life. You will also receive:

- Reimbursement for mileage and pre-approved out-of-pocket expenses
- Orientation and training on the Society's programs and services
- Ongoing support in your volunteer role
- Flexible hours and time commitments
- Opportunities to engage in your community and make new connections

The approval process includes an interview, background checks (child welfare and police), and references. Thank you for sharing your time and talents. Your contribution creates meaningful opportunities and brighter futures for children and youth.

Opportunities

Volunteers play a vital role by sharing their time and talents to enrich the lives of the children, youth, and families we support. They work alongside staff, caregivers, and families, contributing to a wide range of services, including:

- Driving children to appointments or family visits.
- Helping with agency events.
- Being a friend, mentor, or tutor to a child or youth.
- Board of Directors
- Supporting families in meaningful ways.

Time Commitment

Volunteer opportunities are flexible and can match the time you're able to give. Some volunteers offer a few hours each week or month, while others choose to share a larger portion of their leisure time.

Training and Support

As a volunteer, you will receive a full orientation to the agency's programs and services, and you'll be encouraged to participate in training opportunities offered by CFSGE.
